“As an organization and as individuals, the people of Snyder Cohn embrace sustainability on all levels. Leading by example is a longstanding company tradition and a quality that our clients respect and appreciate.”

Founded on the principles of integrity and trust, Snyder Cohn CPAs and Business Advisors understands the importance of doing what's right - for our clients, employees, community and planet. That means ensuring that the things we hold dear are here for future generations to enjoy.

As a Montgomery County Certified Green Business, Snyder Cohn has demonstrated our dedication to preserving and protecting community assets - social, economic and environmental. Our accounting firm has spent the past year with a focused intent on practices that reduce our carbon footprint.

With our recent office move to North Bethesda, we created the opportunity to build sustainability into the design of our new space. From lighting to appliances to furnishings, the space utilizes eco-friendly products that reduce both resource consumption and costs. Similar results were achieved by adopting new business practices, such as responsible purchasing, electronic communications, and recycling.

As an organization and as individuals, the people of Snyder Cohn embrace sustainability on all levels. Leading by example is a longstanding company tradition and a quality that our clients respect and appreciate.

Snyder Cohn provides a range of accounting services, including compliance, tax, audit and financial statement services. We have dedicated divisions that specialize in medical practice consulting, retirement plan administration, and outsourced accounting. Our clients include start-up and small and medium-sized businesses, as well as those with revenues in the hundreds of millions of dollars.

Founded in 1927, Snyder Cohn specializes in serving business owners and executives of businesses and not-for-profit organizations in the Washington, D.C metro area. We have a global reach as a result of our affiliation with BKR International, a worldwide network of top accounting firms.

We are distinguished by our approach. We support our clients in their life cycle from inception through succession. We instill a culture of listening and learning to make sure we understand our clients' needs.

We recognize that Snyder Cohn's sustainability depends on our ability to provide service to and build relationships with our clients. To continue to grow our firm, we believe we must deliver a "wow" experience to our clients. If you are searching for such an experience, contact Snyder Cohn today - on the Web at www.snydercohn.com or by phone at 301-652-6700.
